Building Faith in the Hearts
Of Our Children

We know that there is no greater love than the love of Jesus. His selfless sacrifice on the cross exemplifies a love beyond measure, a love that knows no bounds. Let us recognize that Valentine's Day is a day to celebrate love - love between spouses, for our children, our friends, and family, but more importantly, the lasting love of Jesus. In showing this love in all areas of our lives, let us reflect it in our relationships, acts of kindness, and forgiveness. In embracing the love of Jesus, we not only draw closer to Him but also become beacons of hope and compassion in a world that greatly needs it. As you celebrate Valentine's Day next week, may you experience the ultimate love in your hearts that can only come from Jesus!

February Blessing,
Mr. Schmidt
