Friday Note

Building Faith in the Hearts Of Our Children

My child's feelings are hurt. I tell her she is special.

My child is injured. I do whatever it takes to make her feel better.

My child is afraid. I won't go to sleep until she is secure.

I'm not a hero...I'm a parent. When a child hurts, a parent does what comes naturally. He helps...

Why don't I let my Father do for me what I am more than willing to do for my own children?

I'm learning...Being a parent is teaching me that when I am criticized, injured or afraid, there is a Father who is ready to comfort me. There is a Father who will hold me until I'm better, help me until I can live with the hurt, and who won't go to sleep when I'm afraid of waking up and seeing the dark.

Ever.
